

Title Closer, Stephanie Lococo Receives her CRP Designation

6/24/2011 – Glen Ellyn, IL - Global American Title Agency, Inc. is pleased to announce that Stephanie Lococo, has successfully passed the CRP[®] exam on May 18, 2011 earning her Certified Relocation Professional[®] designation. Stephanie has been a Title Closer at Global American Title since 2007.

Worldwide ERC[®], a professional membership organization that supports the mobility workforce, developed the Certified Relocation Professional[®] designation to recognize professionals who demonstrate a significant level of experience and knowledge of the relocation industry.

“We focus on providing a professional and personalized client experience,” says Lynn Paiva, President of Global American Title Agency, Inc. “Our team continues to strengthen their education so we can offer that personalized experience with the highest degree of professionalism.”

As a Title Closer, Stephanie handles closing transactions for multiple states, from ordering the update to issuing final policy on a file. “Corporate relocation is a specialized field that demands knowledge of the real estate market, appraising, tax and legal issues, and mobility strategies. Stephanie clearly demonstrates knowledge in those areas and more,” said Paiva.

About Global American Title Agency, Inc.

Global American Title Agency, Inc. provides local title services to the Chicagoland area and national title services to the relocation, real estate, and mortgage industries. Since 1994 Global American Title Agency, Inc. has focused on providing cost-effective solutions, convenience, and advanced technology communications.

Contact:
Lynn Paiva
President
Global American Title Agency, Inc.
630-469-2725
lynp@globaltitle.com

###